Silence Questions By Mac

Chairman Bangs For Quiet, Tells McCarthy He's Out Of Order at Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee wound up its first session inquiring into charges against Sen. McCarthy today with the chairman banging the Wisconsin senator into silence and thundering he was "out of order."

McCarthy and his attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, sought to raise the question of whether the committee's vice chairman, Sen. Edwin Johnson (D-Colo.) was quoted truthfully or not in a Denver Post story of last March. The newspaper said Johnson, in an interview, had declared:

"In my opinion, there is not a man among the Democratic leaders of Congress who does not loathe Joe McCarthy."

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) ruled that Johnson's right to sit on the committee had not been challenged and that even if it was the committee itself couldn't act on it. He said the matter was irrelevant to the hearings and that McCarthy and Williams could get from Johnson himself any statement on whether the Post quotes were true or false.

Prior to the flareup, Johnson had read a statement denying that on March 12 or any other time he had said that he personally "loathed Senator Joseph McCarthy."

McCarthy asked "are we entitled to know whether the quotations of March 12 are correct or incorrect?"

Watkins told him he could get that at some other place than the hearing.

"Mr. Chairman—" McCarthy began again.

"Just a minute," Watkins broke in. "You have no challenge."

"I should be entitled to know," McCarthy started once more.

Cracking down with his gavel, Watkins stopped him.

"The senator," he thundered, "is out of order."

McCarthy made another try.

Once again Watkins stopped him, declaring "we aren't going to be interrupted by these diversions and sidelines."

"The committee," the chairman declared, "will be in recess."

Johnson, in his brief formal statement, recalled that his March 12 interview with the Denver newspaper was shortly after Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) criticized McCarthy in a Senate speech March 9.

He added:

"The Flanders speech on the Senate floor which was the forerunner of my March 12 statement pertained to the question whether or not Senator McCarthy be removed from the chairmanship of a Senate committee. My position then and now is that that matter should be decided by the majority party in charge of the organization of the Senate and that it was not the business of the Senate Democratic party at all."

"I have full faith in my ability to weigh the charges which have been made against Senator McCarthy together with whatever evidence that may be presented without prejudice."

In the 2½ hour session before the recess until tomorrow, the Senate group did little more than lay the groundwork for its hearings.

Much of the time was taken up with reading into the record correspondence related to a charge that McCarthy was contemptuous of a Senate subcommittee on elections and privileges of the Senate Rules Committee.

That subcommittee looked into McCarthy's financial affairs in 1952 but never got him before it as a witness as to his transactions although it made several requests for his appearance.

This first charge for the new hearings is labelled: "Incidents of contempt of the Senate or a senatorial committee."

Edward Bennett Williams, McCarthy's attorney, sought dismissal of this charge shortly after the special six-member Senate committee opened hearings.

Williams contended the charge was "legally insufficient," but Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) told him the committee did not agree with him.

Columbia Police Hold Youth In Attempted Theft Of Motorcycles

COLUMBIA (AP)—A-2C Wilburn Gayle Guiley, 20, of Louisville, Ky., was in custody here today and being questioned in connection with an attempted theft of two motorcycles at a garage on U. S. here this morning.

Two men who abandoned a nearly new automobile at the garage were jumped by Columbia police as they were transferring their belongings from the automobile to two motorcycles. They fled on foot, setting off a chase over a wide area in which several State Patrol cars, a State Patrol airplane and Columbia and Boone County officers, joined by officers from adjoining counties, participated.

Guiley was found asleep in an automobile in a used car lot nearby after Jim Juddkins Jr., son of a patrol sergeant who was participating in the chase, had spotted him.

Legion Begins Largest Parade In Washington

Tens of Thousands Line City's Streets For 10-Hour March

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Legion launched its mammoth parade—the biggest ever close to it—down historic Pennsylvania Avenue today.

Tens of thousands of shouting, cheering men, women and children lined the streets of the parade route as the march, which was expected to last until midnight or thereabouts, got under way.

The first police escort started rolling down the avenue toward the Treasury Department promptly at 2 p. m. Quickly, bands and marching units swung into the line.

Color guards, army bands and military marching units were first in line. The hifijinks were well back in the crowd.

Right up to the first "forward march!" at 2 p. m., officials acknowledged they did not know how long the marchers would be stepping by. But they predicted, it would be far into the night.

And they had plenty of advance statistics on the swirling mass of drum majorettes, legionnaires, ladies' auxiliary members and the fun-loving 40-and-8ers.

Some 75,000 to 80,000 parading on 8, maybe 12, hours to the music of about 350 bands. Along the route perhaps as many as 700,000 spectators, some of them government workers given the afternoon off. That would be bigger than the 65,000 or so marchers at the St. Louis legion convention last year, bigger even than the record 70,000-plus at New York in 1947.

Ten parade divisions, each with its own march, made up of marching bands and floats from the 48 states, District of Columbia and abroad.

A hundred square blocks marked off on Capitol Hill for the parade's formation area, big enough to handle 100,000 marchers, and a dispersal area of 35 square blocks near Lincoln Memorial.

Legion officials said the parade would go on regardless of weather.

Last night, legion banquets heard Mme. Chiang Kai-shek tell of China's Communist enslavement and Soviet Russia's actions toward her country since as far back as 1926.

The wife of Nationalist China's leader brought a sympathetic audience to its feet in applause when she said in measured words:

"Congressmen have come and conquerors have gone, but our way of life has withstood them and will continue to withstand the present brutal masters."

"We Chinese will not be slaves long. This I promise you . . . for there are countless living and determined heroes on the mainland as well as on Formosa."

Mme. Chiang's speech was her first public utterance since coming to the United States for medical treatment several months ago.

Sedalia One of the Refueling Stops In Bendix Trophy Race

A press release from the U.S. Air Force Press Center, National Aircraft Show, Dayton, O., gives Sedalia as one of five refueling points for the Bendix cross-country trophy event in the trans-continental dash.

Zero hour is 8 a. m. Saturday, Sept. 5, for ten Air Force pilots.

That's the hour when the initial starter in the famed Bendix cross-country Trophy Event will start the wheels rolling in an effort to surpass the present existing record of 603.54 miles per hour, established by Major William Whisner during the 1953 National Aircraft Show for the Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., to Dayton, O., speed dash.

The remaining nine pilots will roar into the air at ten minute intervals behind the first starter, and it is expected that some three hours later the speedy Republic F-84F Thunderstreaks will flash past the home pylon at Cox Municipal Airport.

The starting order will be announced the morning of Sept. 3 at Edwards Air Force Base.

All ten starters will refuel en route according to General E. W. Rawlings (USAF), senior department of defense liaison officer for the National Aircraft Show, at the various bases along the trans-continental route.

Drought Relief Coming

Missouri Will Get Federal Assistance Even Though State Funds Are All Gone

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today it will notify Gov. Phil M. Donnelly of Missouri that his state's farmers will be eligible for emergency federal drought relief regardless of whether Missouri has funds of its own for use in the emergency.

Kenneth L. Scott, director of the department's credit services and head of the drought relief program, said the department had received word from Donnelly that Missouri does not have funds for drought aid because of heavy expenditures under a similar program last year.

Scott said the department has allotted $250,000 to Missouri to help pay the cost of transporting hay to eligible farmers in that state. It will be available, he said, even though Missouri does not have contributing funds.

He said all states seeking federal aid in transporting hay from surplus to shortage areas are being asked to contribute toward the expenses, if they can.

But so far none of the eight states designated for federal drought assistance are contributing funds, except to help cover some administrative expenses. Nevertheless, he said, the department is going ahead with its hay program in those states.

The department offers to pay not to exceed one-half the actual cost of transportation of hay or $10 a ton, whichever is less.

Scott said the department will contribute toward the cost in addition to the federal contribution, they may do so.

Eligible farmers obtain hay through regular feed channels.

The federal drought program also offers eligible farmers and ranchers livestock feed and grains at prices 50 cents a hundred pounds below local market prices. No state contribution is required or asked for under this program.

Under the feed grain program, farmers who are approved for assistance buy designated quantities of corn, grain sorghum and oats from local grain dealers. The dealer bill such farmers at 60 cents per hundred pounds below the prevailing market price.

Such dealers get replacement grains from government surplus stocks at the 60 cent discount.

Eligibility for benefits of the hay and feed grain program is determined by county committees of the Farmers Home Administration, one of the department's credit and assistance agencies.

Scott said the matter of determining which farmers and ranchers are available and which are not is left up to the local FHA committees. He said the only limitation set by the department is that the aid be made available only to "farmers and ranchers who need the help to maintain their foundation herds of cattle, sheep and goats."

In general, farmer who was eligible last year under a certain set of circumstances would be eligible under similar circumstances this year," Scott said.

In addition to the hay and feed program, the department is offering emergency loans to drought distressed farmers to help them continue normal operations.

Included are special livestock loans and production emergency loans.

The livestock loans will be made to any established producers and feeders of cattle, sheep and goats, except commercial feed lot operators, who are temporarily unable to get credit elsewhere, who need credit to continue normal operations, who have a good past record of successful operation and who have reasonable prospects for success with the help of the loan.

Says Fleming Advised Against Open Resistance

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP)—A U. S. Army officer testified today that Col. Harry Fleming advised his fellow prisoners in a North Korean POW camp not to resist the Communists openly because it might result in their being punished.

(See earlier story on Page 7)

Fleming's military trial on charges he collaborated with the Communists and committed acts detrimental to his fellow prisoners during 34 months as a prisoner of the Communists entered its second day.

1st Lt. Louis Wilson of Shreveport, La., said under cross examination that Fleming at one time was elected compound leader of the POW's in his camp because he "seemed to get along OK with Kim," the Communist camp commander.

He said that the Communists at one time ordered the prisoners to write an account of their experiences since being captured. Wilson quoted Fleming as telling the prisoners they should go no further in preparing the scripts than their conscience would allow.

Devotion To God Appeal

Summary Message Of World Council Of Churches Offers Only Hope of Peace

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—A summing up message from the World Council of Churches today proclaimed "to all who will listen" that only devotion to God can conquer the fears and "powers of evil" that plague the earth.

In its keynote message, the council's historic assembly declared that mankind's search for freedom, justice and peace is doomed to defeat unless men "turn from our ways to God's way."

"Nothing other than God can ever satisfy the heart of man," the message said. "Forgetting this, man becomes his own enemy. He seeks justice, but creates oppression."

He wants peace but drifts toward war. His very mastery of nature threatens him with ruin. Whether he acknowledges it or not, he stands under the judgment of God and under the shadow of death."

The 1,000-word message, couched in the name of the 17-day world Christian gathering, came as the assembly moved toward its final sessions today.

It declared that God, in Jesus Christ, is "the hope of the world." And it said that "only at the cross of Christ" can man find the answer to the "fear and distrust" which at present divide our world.

"It is there that Christians must pray daily for their enemies," the message said. "It is there that we must seek deliverance from self-righteousness, impatience and fear."

"And those who know that Christ is risen should have the courage to expect new power to break through every human barrier."

The message affirmed the determination of the council's 163 denominations in 48 nations to seek greater unity to strengthen their faith. It said:

"We enter now upon a second stage. To stay together is not enough. We must go forward. As we learn more of our unity in Christ, it becomes the more intolerable that we should be divided."

The message said "we long ardently" for the fellowship of the churches not belonging to the council. The two largest ones are the Southern Baptist and Roman Catholic Churches.

And to its individual congregations, with some 170 million members, the council put some searching questions. Among them:

Does your church speak against injustice and oppression?

Does your church speak against persecution in many lands to which need and oppression?

Does your church act against segregation and discrimination as contrary to the will of God?

Do you forgive one another as Christ forgave you?

The assembly yesterday also:

1. Voiced its "grave concern" regarding religious liberty in several lands, and recommended appeals to authorities and prayers in behalf of all "those suffering from persecution and repression."

2. Urged prohibition of nuclear weapons of mass destruction, with provisions for international control and inspection of safeguard each nation's security, together with overall arms reductions.

Hollywood Model Creates Sensation During Visit Here

The lovely Evelyn Bunn, Hollywood model, created quite a sensation in Sedalia Monday in the beautiful diaphanous costume such as was worn by the women of Pharaoh Akhnaton's Court in 3,300 B.C. She appeared on the streets here, at several gatherings and with the traveling studio exhibit advertising "The Egyptain," which will be shown at the Fox Theatre starting Sept. 16.

Miss Bunn, an attractive brunette, was wearing one of the costumes worn by the star of "The Egyptain," which was of Nile green with long cape of metallic material with open work design.

Besides acting as hostess with the studio exhibit parked at the Fox Theatre, Miss Bunn visited the Rotary Club at noon and during the afternoon went to the Sedalia Air Force Base.

During the evening women crowded the downstairs floor of Flower's for the first fashion show of fall styles, which concluded with the modeling of the Egyptian costume by Miss Bunn. The scenic room was filled as were the seats all over the downstairs which had been put at every possible place. Miss Bunn told about the costume she was wearing and of the show that would soon be showing in Sedalia. She carried with her the lion cub and when she put him down for a few minutes at the scenic room he walled at the leash and tried to head for the kitchen, from which came the odor of food.

Others in the picture are Bob Halston, Sullivan, and Larry Farr. Farr, it will be recalled, left the race in the 75th lap suffering from heat exhaustion. Burglars Caught Because Woman Was Suspicious

DREXEL, Mo. (AP)—Three burglars were caught this morning because of a suspicious woman and a fast-moving volunteer fireman and residents.

The vigilantes surrounded the Rapp Truck and Tractor Co. and the show of force so impressed the three men inside the store they quickly surrendered. They had collected a pile of tools and other loot near the front door ready to be hauled away.

Mrs. Martin Shipley, who lives a block from the store, said she got up about 5 a.m. and noticed a car parked across the street from her home.

"It looked suspicious to me," she related later, "especially when three men came back to the car, got something out of it and then walked back uptown. I called them, who then called City Marshal Rex Neil and alerted the volunteer firemen and businessmen."

More than two dozen men, some carrying arms, surrounded the building, and fired several shots into the air. The men quickly gave up, obviously surprised at such a show of force in a town of about 500 residents.

Sheriff John Steplen of Cass County, who took the men to the county jail, said they gave the names as Victor Osborne, 39; Harold Youngblood, 32; and Raymond Romburg, 26, all of Kansas City.

Fifteen Years Brings Same War Position

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

A new war would be unthinkable. Peaceful co-existence of two opposed systems, one free and one based on regimentation and slavery, may be possible. The totalitarian system might, if sufficiently appeased, cooperate for peace.

That sounds like today's world. But it was pretty much the situation 15 years ago today on the eve of the greatest war in history. That war started Sep. 1, 1939, when totalitarian Nazi Germany marched into Poland.

Fifteen years later, much of the global drama seemed upside down with principal characters in the wrong roles. But otherwise, little has changed and the world seems almost to have come a complete circle.

Fifteen years ago it was the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo Axis. Today it is the Moscow-Peking Axis. Fifteen years ago the issue was freedom against slavery. Today it is the same. Fifteen years ago the price of peaceful co-existence was a free hand for totalitarian expansion.

Fifteen years ago the world had gone through rehearsals in Spain, Ethiopia and Manchuria for the global war to come. Today's world has seen similar actions in Korea and Indochina.

But here are some big differences. World War II was preceded by a series of aggressions. The League of Nations, then a world's hope of global cooperation for peace, did nothing. But in Korea the United Nations, or at least that segment of it willing to support the United States, met aggression with armed resistance and the aggression was halted.

Before World War II, the United States was unarmed, unprepared and just struggling out of the effects of a devastating world economic depression. Today the United States has a stockpile of powerful deterrents—atomic weapons. It has a string of strategic air bases poised and ready. And the American economy has been flourishing.

Then the United States, largely on the sidelines in the world, found that the rest of the world could fight out its own wars without involving Americans. Today the United States, perhaps even a bit against its will, finds itself thrust into a position of world leadership.

Missouri Has No Funds Left to Use For Hay Program

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri spent so much money fighting last year's drought it has no funds now to match federal aid in a new hay shipping program.

That was the word Gov. Phil M. Donnelly sent to Agriculture Secretary Benson last night.

Acting Secretary Earl L. Butz told the governor last week a half-million dollars was being set aside to help pay freight costs on hay shipped into Missouri. He suggested it would be "very much in order" for the state to match the federal funds.

But Donnelly said in a telegram he state has no matching money available. And he told newsmen the state has no matching money legislative session to appropriate a new hay shipping fund.

At the same time the governor asked Benson to clarify the federal program and spell out what the state's administrative responsibility would be. He said he did not want to sign the cooperative agreement until he finds out what the state will have to do.

Last year's drought resulted in two special sessions of the Legislature which appropriated $9.4 million to pay hay shipping costs. To this the federal government added $1,604,000. None of that money is available now.

Search Is Continued For Bodies of Two Believed Drowned

HANNIBAL, Mo., (P) — Rescue workers continued to search the Mississippi River near here today for the bodies of Virginia Breedlove, 13, of Hannibal and Harold A. Webster, 23, believed to have drowned Sunday.

Webster, of near Hannibal, had taken Virginia, her sister, Carol, 5, and his four-year-old son, Rob, 3, to an island near the Missouri shore.

A boating party from Palmyra found the two young children on the island five miles north of here, Robert pointed to the river when asked where his father was. The girl was crying.

County officials believe the girl may have gone under while swimming and Webster drowned in an attempt to save her.

The whole Sommers family gathered under one roof Monday night to welcome home two of their sons who had returned from overseas duty with the Army.

Newly returned to the country are Cpl. Harold L. Sommers, 22, and Pfc. Billy C. Sommers, 18, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sommers, 306 South New York. Harold was with an infantry unit in Korea for 16 months, while Billy served with an infantry unit in Germany. He is on a 31-day furlough and will return to Germany for 18 months. Harold returned a little over a week ago, and Billy walked in Monday night.

On hand to welcome both young men home were the Sommers' six other children, three of the daughters being accompanied by their husbands: Mr. and Mrs. James Bowman, Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zubrod, Arnold, Mo., and Mrs. Wendell Sommers, and Mary Ellen Sommers, all of Sedalia.

Mrs. Milton Taylor Honored at Shower

Mrs. Milton E. Taylor, Versailles, was honored with a cradle shower given on Friday evening in the basement of the First Baptist Church, Stover. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Wilma Snelling of the Stover community and for a number of years was a teacher in the public schools of Morgan County.

The decorative scheme was lovely in delicate shades of blue and pink. Crepe paper streamers, swung from the ceiling, led to a dainty blue and pink umbrella suspended at the center of the room over a large gift-filled baby basket on a low pink table from the nursery.

Interesting games were played, after which Mrs. Taylor opened the many beautiful as well as practical gifts. She was assisted by Mrs. Wayne Snelling, Mrs. Norman Geary and Miss Joan Goetze.

Mrs. James Rastorfer, Mrs. J. L. Taylor and Mrs. Jake Alpers were hostesses. They were assisted in decorating by Misses Ferba Alpers and Bonnie Taylor and in serving by Misses Joan Goetze, Joanne Koester and Bonnie Taylor.

of Edwin Booth. The Shakespearean actor and brother of assassin John Wilkes Booth is being portrayed by Richard Burton, star of "The Robe."

Miss LeGallienne watched with careful eye as Burton, dressed in a "Hamlet" costume, quipped a theater mob that was hurling insults and waving banners that abused actors. It seems that all of the acting profession, and especially Edwin Booth, were decimated after the shooting of President Lincoln.

When the extras had ended their clamor, I asked Miss LeGallienne how she had been lured to Hollywood.

"It was for Shakespeare," she replied. "I will do anything to further my three favorites—Shakespeare, Ibsen and Chekhov."

She is not only advising on technical matters but will also make her first screen appearance in the film. She'll play with Burton in scenes from "Hamlet" and "Richard III."

"That was not part of the bargain," she admitted. "But they convinced me I should do it."

The actress speaks strongly on matters Shakespearean, and she had pointed comments to make about other films that have been made of the Bard's plays.

"I liked Olivier's 'Henry V.," she said. "I think it was the best of the Shakespearean films I have seen. But I didn't care as much for his 'Hamlet.' I disagreed with many of the cuts he made in the text. And I didn't like the blond wig he wore. It made him look too old."

"I thought 'Julius Caesar' was good, but I disagreed with some things in it too. For one thing, I didn't think Marc Anthony should have been played as a boy. After all, he was a man of about 40 and just a year later was having his affair with Cleopatra. I didn't think he should have been played so athletically as he was by Marlon Brando."

She cited Brando as an example of what is wrong with today's actors.

"He is a great talent," she remarked, "perhaps the most exciting actor since Jack Benny. But it is too bad that actors like Brando are not given a chance for more seasoning. Most of his stage experience has been in one play ('A Streetcar Named Desire'). There is virtually no repertory in this country any more, so young actors get little chance to really learn their trade."

Selecting Nurse Of Year In State

Citizens of the state are urged to join in the selection of The Missouri Nurse of 1954 as a highlight of the centennial anniversary of the nursing profession. The first National Nurse Week will be held Oct. 11-18 in the state and nation as the result of recent proclamations by President Eisenhower and Gov. Phil M. Donnelly.

"Only a letter of 200 words or less, citing your favorite registered nurse is necessary to nominate her," Miss Marjorie Elmore, executive secretary of the Missouri State Nurses' Association announced.

Citizens should send their letters on or before Sept. 20, to the Committee on Careers, Box 325, Jefferson City.

The registered nurse chosen will be honored symbolically by her colleagues throughout the state during National Nurse Week.

In nominating a nurse for the honor, her qualifications, her efficiency, her kindness, cooperation and activity, in and out of her profession, should be considered. The nurse must be actively working in her profession to be eligible.

A committee of lay judges will select The Missouri Nurse of 1954 and her name will be announced prior to National Nurse Week.

Steal Half His Barn

ATHENS, W. Va. (P) — Clarence Spangler angrily told state police that someone stole "about half" of his two-story log barn.

The thieves apparently had saved in half, for easier hauling, the 20-foot logs of which the barn was built.

One In Sedalia, Other In Kansas— Sam and His Brother Both Have Peaches In Dry Year

Sam Cooper, who has been employed for the past 25 years on Oakdale Farm, which is now owned by T. W. Cloney II, has been watching the peaches on the five trees in the garden back of his house as they get bigger and bigger. The branches of the trees almost broke with the weight of the peaches that were so unusually large and so abundant.

Then came a copy of a newspaper from Pittsburgh, Kan., dated Aug. 14, with a boxed in, front page article about the peaches that Sam's brother, the Rev. L. C. Cooper, had grown. The article follows:

"Rev. L. C. Cooper, pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church, has some evidence he believes proves prayer can be just as potent as water and tender care for garden produce."

"The minister was showing interested Pittsburghers today some samples of Elberta peaches he grew on a tree in his back yard at 1103 South Broadway. The three-year old tree has produced about two dozen fine peaches this year of drought and grasshoppers, when most gardens and orchards either dried up or were eaten up."

"Some people think you have to water and spray peaches, but you don't," Rev. Cooper commented as he gazed fondly at the big luscious fruit. "I just set out the tree, sat back and let it alone—no watering and no spraying—and look at the results."

"How did you get it to grow?" he was asked.

"Oh, maybe I prayed a little morning and night over the peaches," the minister replied, "and the Good Lord just made 'em grow, for there they are."

Well, Sam didn't pray over his peaches and he can't give any special reason why he had such wonderful peaches, and so many, with the hot, dry weather that did a pretty good job of burning up everything else. But Sam's peaches are so big it takes only two to make a pound. Not only that, they look just like peaches you see in pictures, the kind with the deep pink shadings. He just couldn't resist, Sam went out, picked some of his peaches, put them in a box and sent them to his brother.

Merry-Go-Round

Move Capital to Washington

For More Harmony, Says Ray

(Note to Editors: While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several guest columnists, today's being Johnny Ray.)

JOHNNIE RAY

On

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

I'm sure that when some Washington cats give the eyeline to the byline over this mess of words, they're gonna figure for sure it's a new congressman from the midwest who got into office during an off-beat election. But since I'm only interested in a downbeat election, they'd be wrong. It's not a clock with 13 on it. And, man, they'll find out how wrong as they read on.

The only thing I know about politics is what I hear at hearings. But what American kid hasn't pictured himself in the Nation's Capital on a Merry-Go-Round that spins to a different tune every minute? Boy, what a ride! It's show business at its height and after years of dealing with agency politics I think I'd like a taste of the D.C. type.

I got to wondering about some of the possibilities as I spent several months on the set of the 20th-Fox production of "No Business like Show Business" with the hostess with the mostest, Ethel, the Merm. What's politics without the moo, the kind of folding money Perle Mesta has accumulated? The champagne talk mixed with campaign talk at the bars at her parties but it didn't mean a thing until it got the swing of the 32 bars of Irving Berlin tunes.

That's when everyone saw her on the screen and called her Mesta, and even the Republicans figured it was the best thing that ever happened to Washington. Yep, we need more harmony along the Potomac, Mac.

Take another little gal in "No Business like Show Business." Don't really try to take her, Jack, because Joe Di Mag may have something to say about it. I'm talking about the best curve pitcher of our generation, Miss Marilyn Monroe. Now if you dig old jokes you must know that if Mar ever tried to get a bill passed in Congress no fuddy duddy could resist her motions before the House. Put Marilyn in Congress and I guarantee you that the entire next session would be spent investigating her.

The gab these days is about production. What a bet they're missing in Washington by not bringing in Darryl Zanuck. This gate is one of the best producers of all time. He'd be perfect in Washington. When cuts have to be made Mr. Z could put more excesses on the cutting room floor than 62 economy experts.

Congressional Record in Swing Time

Last time I visited Washington I tried to catch up on my reading and started with the Congressional Record. Wow! This is dull department for real. What a bet they're missing by not putting it to music. Can you imagine the sale of long winds on a long playing record. And there's your title, "The Congressional Long Playing Record." You wouldn't need much room to store it either. I'd say if you have a twenty-room apartment with a two-story warehouse adjacent you wouldn't have any trouble. And you gotta be silly not to have a twenty-room apartment with a two-story warehouse.

As I give this article real thought I begin to realize that Hollywood names shouldn't go to Washington. There'd be too much travel involved. The solution? Move the Capital to Hollywood. Rip down all the palm trees and replace them with Japanese cherry blossoms.

I've been reading the trade papers about all the movies that will be made out here during the next 12 months and it runs into mighty big dough. Never in movie history have they scheduled so many multimillion-dollar pictures. And you know about the salaries they pay for stories, writers, costumes, etc. The secretary of the treasury would be right at home in movieland. If anything went wrong with a treaty, the front office would call in its best writers and change the script in half an hour. Maybe sooner. You know how important the happy ending is in moviemaking.

One of the big troubles in politics is that one dealing with personality, diction, appearance. This could all be solved in short order by general casting. We need senators who look like senators, who can put their issues over like Edward Arnold and Lionel Barrymore. More attention should be paid to box-office value. If a solon is a saloon type and only makes with the booze, out he goes. Cancel his contract before option time. There's no room in the senate for a Mack Sennett comedy type. If he doesn't click but clicks, book him in the sticks, give him the "B" picture treatment, and relegate him to a double feature with a sheriff in Seven Rocks, Montana.

Theme Songs for Diplomats

There are not enough theme songs in politics. I think that whenever a diplomat is sent on an important mission there should be a theme song. Man, sometimes there isn't even a theme.

We need more makeup men. Boy, we sure get into enough messes and there are too many heartaches before we make up with the other side.

Of course, there's been some advertising by guys in politics but they miss the bus, Gus. Y'know what's missin'? Dames! There is nothing like a dame, when Y'want fame!

And now we come to one of the most important items. In Hollywood after all is said and done and spent, the entire future lies in a title. Not the titles we must deal with in Europe but the title for a finished product. This is what will interest the final judge—Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen. You just can't call a thing by a number and expect the public to be interested in H.R. No. 52564. Give it a title with glamor and you have half the sale. If the bill deals with a new highway, call it something like "The Road to the South" and with a Bing and a Bob type set of congressmen you can get everything with a song. If the arrangement is right and the melody is mellow, solid like jello, but not as shaky, then you have a hunk of harmony that this old world ours can use.

(Tomorrow's columnist will be the distinguished senator from South Dakota, Hon. Karl S. Mundt.)

Named Russia

The Finns named Russia for the Swedes. A small colony was founded on the Dnieper by Swedish tribesmen and the Finns called the colonists "Rhosutsi." Later this became "Ros" and then "Rus," which meant rovers or seafarers.

Quality Versus Quantity

By Bruce Blossat

Gen. Carl (Tooe) Spaatz, former Air Force chief of staff and now a Newsweek magazine editor, says the Russian air force has lunged ahead of ours in numbers, but that the disparity in size is not yet critical for us.

According to Spaatz, Russia now has 20,000 first-line planes against our 12,500. But, luckily for the United States, these figures don't tell the full story.

The general says we are still superior in the air for the following reasons:

1. We have great technical advantage in the waging of strategic warfare, due to our vast experience in World War II and to our improved training and operational practices developed since then.

2. We have a bigger stockpile of air-borne atomic weapons.

3. We have more and better-situated air bases for intercontinental operations.

4. Both because of the inherent performance characteristics of our aircraft and because of new air refueling techniques, we have a marked advantage in flying range.

Spaatz believes that if war came while we were in our present relative numerical position with the Soviet air force, a high percentage of American planes would get through to Russian targets but a relatively small share of Russian planes would be successful in missions against America.

Perhaps not all our aviation experts would be as optimistic, but it is admittedly heartening to have a man of Spaatz' stature voice this confidence.

He does not mean, however, to lull us into complacency. Soviet capability in intercontinental strategic warfare is increasing, he says, and with that improvement Russia's numerical advantage in planes will become steadily more critical for America.

If their capabilities should ever rise to equal ours, then air power as a war deterrent would depend strictly on numerical superiority, in Spaatz' view. Consequently, he feels we must match the Soviet advances with further technical gains of our own, and at the same time must boost our plane numbers substantially.

Obviously, if this is an acceptable analysis and non-experts are not well placed to assail it, we cannot talk much economy in Air Force expenditures so long as the Soviet Union goes on enlarging its air arm and developing improved understanding of strategic warfare.

Evidently it is not safe to ride forever on the idea that we can get along with fewer and better planes. When the enemy nearly matches you technically, as Russia some day might do, then numbers count.

Warts Can Be Treated In A Dozen Different Ways

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Any smart youngster can diagnose a wart just as well as a doctor can. But warts, because they are so common and because their behavior is so extraordinary, have always been and are now a subject which is fascinating to discuss.

Four different kinds of warts are recognized though it is possible that they all have the same cause. In the past there have been many extraordinary guesses about the cause: punishment for some sin committed, contact with toads, lizards or some other living organism and many others.

Today, it is believed that warts are caused by one or more viruses which are tiny living organisms too small to see under the ordinary microscope.

Warts often appear with great rapidity, and they frequently disappear equally fast with or without treatment of any kind.

It is not hard to understand why they may come fast, and if caused by a virus how they can be spread from one place to another by rubbing or scratching. But it is difficult to know why they should disappear so easily and for such apparently strange reasons—or for no apparent reason at all.

It is this business of treatment that makes warts so much fun to write about.

There probably is no other condition known to medical science which can be successfully treated in so many different ways.

Warts frequently yield to various medicines given by mouth or injection. They go away after any one of a large number of local applications, after X-ray, after burning with an electric needle.

Most surprising of all many physicians have succeeded in making warts disappear by mental suggestions of various sorts. Perhaps the answer to all of this is that a lot of them go away without any treatment at all.

I do not mean that warts should be neglected and ignored. Some should be treated for cosmetic reasons or because they are being spread to other parts of the body.

Some, like the plantar wart which comes on the ball of the foot, may cause a lot of trouble if not treated early. But (except for plantar warts) those who have troublesome warts can almost always count on getting rid of them if they want to.

To Mrs. H. who says she is troubled with "these little monsters" I should say she should consult a skin specialist who can almost certainly help her get rid of them.

To those several who have recently asked about any relationship between warts and cancer I can assure them there appears to be none whatever.

Stomach Stones

The most plausible reason for the numerous stones carried in the penguin's stomach is that, since he eats enormous amounts of fish, he needs assistance in grinding and digesting his meals.

Deaf Snakes

Scientific tests have shown snakes to be entirely deaf. Thus, the rattler cannot hear his own rattle, and the cobra cannot take his rhythm from the snake charmer's music, but from the swaying of the performer's body.

Influence Movies

Since the states of Kansas, Maryland, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia are important sources of revenue to the motion picture industry, they influence the character of the films offered in all the states, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

It Was Just a Dream

The World Today—French Upset EDC In Action

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is an ABC on what President Eisenhower has just called a "major setback" in the fight against communism: the French refusal last night to join a single European army.

The Western Allies decided on a military alliance when, after the war, it became apparent the Communists were determined to take by force what they couldn't get otherwise. Big example was seizure of power in Czechoslovakia.

The Allies created NATO—North Atlantic Treaty Organization—under which they pledged to help one another in case of attack. Each member would keep its own army but there would be a general staff for planning.

NATO now has 14 members. Twelve signed the NATO agreement April 4, 1949; the United States, Britain, France, Italy, Canada, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Denmark, Iceland, Norway, Portugal, Greece and Turkey joined in February 1952.

The United States contributes one-third of NATO's cost. The other members put up four fifths of the forces. This country has six American divisions with NATO in Europe.

West Germany was not included in NATO. There were obvious reasons. This country, Britain and France—still keeping occupation troops in Germany—have not restored her independence or what diplomats call sovereignty.

Lacking sovereignty, she can't rearm. So long as she is defenseless, the Russians have a soft spot for attack. The Russians have opposed not only NATO but rearming of Germany. The Allies fear a question: How to let Germany rearm but in a way to prevent her becoming a menace to her neighbors someday. In June 1950 the Communists showed how far they were willing to go in aggression with their attack on South Korea.

Four months later, on Oct. 26, 1950, Rene Pleven, then French Premier, proposed a plan which in that early stage won approval of the French Parliament. It was the single European army idea, called EDC—the European Defense Community.

This is how it shaped up: six European countries—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands—would pool their armies in a single European army under a unified command of their own choosing.

Except for West Germany, all these EDC countries were already members of NATO. But whereas the other NATO allies would keep their individual armies, the EDC countries no longer would have national armies of their own.

This single European army—made up of troops from the six EDC countries—would be part of NATO's defense planning.

On May 27, 1952, the six EDC countries' foreign ministers signed an agreement to set it up. This did not by itself create EDC. It couldn't come into existence until the parliaments of all six countries approved.

Four of them—West Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands—gave approval. The Italian Parliament didn't approve but was expected to when the French did. The French Parliament, rent with factions, balked.

Russia tried every trick to keep EDC from being born. Communists in the French Parliament, following the Russian line, fought EDC approval. French nationalists who wanted France to keep her army and national army and not merge it in EDC, fought it too.

In addition, there was French fear of Germany rearmend under any circumstances, and fear, no matter how EDC was unified, that Germany would control it. Russia played on these French worries.

The United States and Britain looked upon EDC as essential for defense of Europe, making use of German manpower, and at the same time keeping Germany from becoming a menace as she might with her own national army.

Although France had proposed EDC four years ago and France agreed to set up EDC two years ago, no French premier chanced asking Parliament, with its hostile mood, to vote on it. The French would have felt safer tied into EDC with Germany if Britain would join EDC also. Britain wouldn't.

At last the present French Premier and foreign minister, Pierre Mendes-France, decided to put EDC to a vote in Parliament. First he tried to get the other five EDC countries to agree to changes in the 1952 agreement which would have made EDC more a fiction than a reality.

He suggested, for instance, that EDC be on trial for eight years and that anyone of the six members could veto what the other five wanted to do. The other five turned him down.

No lover of EDC, Mendes-France asked Parliament to vote. It did, last night, against EDC. That wrecked it.

THE STORY: Luke Miller's fight to abolish lawlessness in Sage City has brought open warfare with Jacob Fugger, who rules the town. Fugger sends his henchman, Bill Black, to newspaper, Wes Tancred, known in Sage City as John Bailey, to wreck Fugger's store in return. The result is a terrific battle between Tancred and Black and for the first time Black is beaten. Undismayed, the unscrupulous Fugger sends Laura, a vengeful pretty clerk in his store, to bring Tancred to him. Laura is an old friend of Tancred's and is the only person in Sage City who knows his real name is not John Bailey.

XVI

TANCRED took off his shop apron and put on his coat. He left the shop and walked to Fugger's store.

"I got your message," he told Jacob Fugger.

"How are you?"

Tancred made a small, impatient gesture, to dismiss the trivialities and to indicate that Fugger should get down to the subject.

"They tell me you're a good man, Bailey," Fugger said.

"You didn't send for me just to tell me that."

"In a way I did," replied Fugger. "I like a good man. I like to have him on my side."

"I'm working for Luke Miller."

"How much is he paying you?"

"Enough."

"I doubt that. He can't afford it. He's got $182 in the bank and he still owes over $600 on his shop equipment. His gross income last month was $314.50."

"You seem to know quite a lot of Mr. Miller's affairs."

"I make it my business to know everything. If Miller's paying you $25 a week, he's drawing down about $10 a week for himself."

"He's paying me only $20 a week."

Jacob Fugger snorted. "For a man of your caliber?"

"Mose Hudkins can set up more type than I can."

Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands—gave approval. The Italian Parliament didn't approve but was expected to when the French did. The French Parliament, rent with factions, balked.

Russia tried every trick to keep EDC from being born. Communists in the French Parliament, following the Russian line, fought EDC approval. French nationalists who wanted France to keep her army and national army and not merge it in EDC, fought it too.

In addition, there was French fear of Germany rearmend under any circumstances, and fear, no matter how EDC was unified, that Germany would control it. Russia played on these French worries.

GOP Calling 'I Like Ike' For Elections

CINCINNATI (AP)—Republican Party leaders grabbed President Eisenhower's political coattails firmly today in an effort to translate the I-like-Ike appeal of 1952 into congressional victories at the polls in November.

If an apparent majority of members attending the GOP National Committee workshop sessions here have their way, the Eisenhower personality may be pumped into nearly every critical campaign area in the country by on-the-spot and television appearances and by radio appeals.

Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, told a news conference yesterday Eisenhower is going to be more active in this non-presidential-year battle for control of Congress than any president in the last 30 years.

While there was doubt Eisenhower would attempt to match the whistle-stopping activities of Democratic former President Truman in 1952, Simpson insisted that before this campaign is over, by way of personal appearance, television and radio, the President will have done more to influence the election than any president has done in the last 30 years.

"Beyond any question," Simpson said, "as the President considers the picture, his actions between now and the election will reflect the realization that he must have a Republican-controlled House and Senate."

The general reaction among National Committee members was one of hope that Eisenhower would put on the kind of vigorous, personal campaign that Simpson outlined.

Simpson said Eisenhower can be expected to make an appearance in Kentucky.

Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said in an interview that a "special effort" will be made there to save the seat occupied by Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who is opposed by Democratic former Vice President Alben Barkley.

State Chairman John Feikens said Michigan Republicans still are counting heavily on a personal appearance by Eisenhower in their state to help Republican Sen. Homer Ferguson in his battle for re-election.

Dirksen said he thinks the Republicans may pick up five Senate seats. They now have 48 to 47 Democratic seats, 1 independent.

Simpson said he is shooting for a net GOP gain of 20 in the House where the lineup stands at 218 Republicans 213 Democrats, 1 independent and 3 vacancies.

Although he declined to pinpoint the races, Dirksen said the five Republican Senate gains might come from New Mexico, Montana, Delaware, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota and Kansas.

Arrested for Trying To Smuggle 'Ammo'

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—U.S. Customs officers said here tonight that three natives of El Salvador—two men and a woman—were arrested at the international boundary yesterday trying to smuggle 20,000 rounds of pistol ammunition into Mexico.

The ammunition, for .32 and .38 caliber weapons, was concealed in false gas tanks on two new trucks the three were driving. Customs said the ammunition apparently was purchased in Dallas, San Antonio and Temple, Tex.

Custom officials said the three probably would be charged tomorrow with violation of the Neutrality Act.

Re-entry to Country Marred With Red Tape

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 12-year-old Dutch girl cooked her own meals at a downtown hotel today awaiting the return of her father from the Netherlands. His re-entry into the U.S. has been delayed by international red tape.

Flaxen-haired Inez De Koning, daughter of electrical engineer Theodore De Koning, returned from summer camp to learn that immigration authorities had prevented her father's re-entry into this country.

Mrs. Agnes Allen, manager of the hotel, said Inez "is a very sustaining child. She cooks her own meals and spends most of her time reading and studying."

Asks to See Pistol, Then Holds Up Clerk

GLENDORA, Calif. (AP)—This thief didn't even bring his own pistol.

Miss Lucille Palmer, clerk in a sporting goods store, told police that a man in a soiled T-shirt asked her to show him a .45 caliber automatic. He checked it to see that it would load properly, inserted a clip of bullets, pointed it at Miss Palmer, and took $35 from the cash register.

He walked out without paying for the pistol, a $72.50 item.

Casts His Vote From Ambulance Stretcher

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Ill health didn't prevent State Sen. John W. Burris (R-Milford) from casting his vote in two state appointments. Burris rode from nearby Rehoboth Beach to the state capital in an ambulance yesterday and was taken into the legislative building on the ambulance bed. He was accompanied by his doctor and two nurses. His physician refused to permit the senator's transfer to a wheel chair.

CLOSING THE RING—These kittens seem a trifle apprehensive as they close in on this tiny skunk, as it was fully equipped. However, moments later, the kittens proved hospitable and welcomed their new friend to the Fletcher Tigner Ranch, northwest of Denning, N. M.

No Incident Amid Hobbs' De-segregation

HOBBS, N.M. (AP)—With the possible exception of the kids—who regret the end of vacation—everybody breathed easier today as studies began in earnest in Hobbs' de-segregated schools.

About 6,000 children, 400 of them Negroes and the rest white, trooped back to class without incident yesterday, easing the fears of adults that violence might come with the end of segregated schools.

"I thought the people would abide by the law," said the Rev. William Carter, Baptist minister who led the anti-segregation fight.

"There was no trouble whatsoever," said Charles L. Mills, superintendent of the seven-school system.

Carter had predicted last week that this southeastern New Mexico oil community of about 15,000 population would "explode into violence" if the desegregation plan was put into effect.

Even after Friday's registration passed quietly, Carter predicted, "There is definitely going to be trouble."

He had been warned by Dist. Atty. Pat Hanagan that he would be held responsible if any violence occurred. He claimed he was being "held hostage" and that "if a Negro stabs me, I can't object."

His change of heart came Sunday when he urged his followers—members of the Hobbs Segregation Committee—to find "God's way to settle our problem." At one time, he claimed to have 8,000 signatures on a petition urging continued segregation.

The furor at Hobbs was in sharp contrast to the end of segregation in other New Mexico schools at Artesia, Clovis, Las Cruces and Carlsbad. School boards in those communities, like the one at Hobbs, had decided to end segregation on the basis of the Supreme Court's recent ruling outlawing the practice.

Only one school system still has segregation, the Roswell system, which has desegregated higher grades and is expected to follow suit in the lower grades.

Says Reds Shift Men To Tibet to Quell New Uprisings There

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Tatro News Agency said today 20,000 Communist troops are being shifted hurriedly to Tibet to suppress a fresh series of uprisings.

Tatona which claims extensive mainland contacts, said the Tibetans were angry over high taxes and the action of the Communists in forcing the Dalai Lama to leave his capital of Lhasa for a visit to Peking.

Stands Atop Flagpole For Indefinite Period

DETROIT (AP)—Richard "Dixie" Blandy of Dayton, Ohio, calmly shifted from one foot to another today atop a 50 foot flagpole at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Blandy, 52, a former flagpole painter, climbed up on the pole yesterday. He stands on a small two feet square platform and says he will not come down for at least eight days. He was hired to publicize the state fair which opens Friday.

"I'll stay on top of the pole until my feet swell so badly I can't take it any more," Blandy says. "Then I'll come down and go to a hospital for treatment."

Unfortunate Skunk Pays His Penalty

LYONS, Kan. (AP)—An unfortunate skunk, made the mistake yesterday of wandering into Mrs. Paul Dring's garage.

Mrs. Dring and a neighbor, Mrs. J. M. Hoss, grabbed a garden hose and attacked before the skunk had a chance to go into action.

The animal retreated into an adjacent garage, whose owner, not wanting to get personally involved, called policeman John Bailey. Officer Bailey likewise decided he was not the man to tackle a drenched and presumably hostile skunk in an enclosed place.

Mrs. Hoss recalled that when she was a girl on the farm, there was a saying that if one could grab a skunk by the tail and get all four feet off the ground fast enough, the skunk couldn't use its scent artillery.

No one wanted to try it, so Mrs. Hoss did. She succeeded.

Holding the outmaneuvered skunk at arm's length, she instructed Bailey to do his duty. A bullet through the skunk's head ended the episode scentlessly.

The explosives were found at Misawa Air Base on northern Honshu. In all, 290 live bombs were discovered in 30 well-hidden underground nests.

Yesterday's Games—Giants Still Lead When Meeting Bums

By BEN PILEGAR
AP Sports Writer

No matter what happens now, the New York Giants still will be in first place when they collide head on with the Brooklyn Dodgers in their three-game showdown series starting Friday in the Polo Grounds.

The margin might be as small as two percentage points. It could be as much as 2½ games. But big or small it will be the Giants on top with the Dodgers trying to climb. Any small boy with experience on a greased pole can tell you that going up is the hardest.

The Dodgers, who had been burning up the West like a prairie fire, ran afoul of an old Brooklyn killer from several seasons back last night and dropped a 7-5 decision in Milwaukee.

The Giants whipped St. Louis 4-1 with Johnny Antonelli becoming the first National League pitcher to win 20 games. New York is now 2½ games ahead of Brooklyn.

Bobby Thomson, the No. 1 public enemy in Brooklyn since his dramatic homer in the 1951 playoffs between the Giants and Dodgers, showed up in a Milwaukee uniform and smashed a three-run homer in the seventh inning for the winning runs.

The Braves went into the seventh trailing 5-4. After one out Bill Bruton beat out an infield single. A sacrifice put him on second. Joe Adcock walked and Thomson drilled one of Carl Erskine's offerings over the left field fence, 400 feet away.

There were some home runs earlier too. Snider hit his 34th with the bases empty in the first. Jack Dittmer gave the Braves a brief 4-3 lead with a two-on drive in the fourth.

Antonelli, the first Giant left-hander to win 20 since Carl Hubbell did it 17 years ago, pitched one of his best games. He held the Cards to four singles, walked three and struck out two. The Giants didn't pull ahead until the seventh when a pair of singles wrapped around a fumble produced the tie-breaking run.

Dusty Rhodes drove home the other pair in the ninth with a bases-loaded single.

The Cleveland Indians, who put their 4½-game American League lead on the line against New York Yankees Stadium tonight, wound up the Boston end of their season yesterday with their 11th victory in 11 starts against the Red Sox at Fenway Park.

They came from four runs behind to nip the Sox 5-4 with a five-run rally in the seventh. Baltimore won its third straight from Washington 3-1 and Cincinnati made it five in a row with a 2-1 triumph over Philadelphia in the only other major league action.

Aging Heinie Majeski, slashed a three-run homer during the Cleveland uprising. Five of Cleveland's 10 pitchers saw action, starting with rookie Ray Narleski and ending with Mike Garcia.

Bob Turley of the Orioles had a no-hitter working until Jim Busby batted safely in the sixth, but he had to strike out pinch hitter Maury McDermott with the bases loaded in the ninth to preserve his 11th triumph.

Another one of those three-run homers that figured prominently in yesterday's games came in the Cincinnati victory over the Phils. Jim Greengrass hit this one during a four-run Redleg rally in the sixth.

New York — Bob Satterfield, 179, Chicago, stopped Frankie Daniels, 175, Bakersfield, Calif., 7. Caracas, Venezuela — Sandy Saddler, 129, New York, stopped Jackie Blair, 131, Dallas, Tex., 1. Los Angeles, outpointed Art Ramponi, 133½, Oakland, 10.

West Jordan, Utah — Rex Layne, 208, Salt Lake City, outpointed Chuck Woodworth, 180, Provo, Utah, 10.

Sports Roundup—Tribe Has Chance In Next 3 Days to Crack Yanks' Grip

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (P)—For the next three nights and days the eyes of the baseball world will be centered largely on Yankee Stadium, and at the end of that period we may know with some degree of certainty whether the Cleveland Indians are destined to snap the Yanks' string of five straight world championships.

If Al Lopez's vastly improved club should exceed even its most delicious prospect and sweep the three-game set behind its "big three," then General Manager Hank Greenberg will be safe in cracking open the customary Tribe champagne when the Yanks board the cars out of here on Thursday night for Chicago. The Bombers' chances of recovering from such a blow would be substantially nil.

If they take two out of three, the Indians will establish themselves as strong favorites to go on virtually unmoored to the wire. Even a single victory would send them back West still in a very advantageous position. The only thing they have seriously to fear is a complete collapse and the loss of three straight to their hard-driving pursuers.

In other words, this is the showdown on whether the 1954 edition of the Indians is, as its admirers insist, an entirely different proposition from the Cleveland clubs which have run second for the past three seasons. They say there is no choke in this outfit, and that is what we are about to find out for certain.

A vast majority of American League fans will be pulling for the Tribe to survive the test brilliantly. There is no question that the succession of Yankee pennants has long since begun to pall on the public, much as everyone was glad to see Casey Stengel win his belated recognition as a great manager. But, until they actually see it happen, the Yankee haters will remain highly nervous.

The champions, rolling smoothly behind a six-game winning streak, go into the series benefited by a day's rest and with their top pitchers—Bob Grim, Ed Lopat and Whitey Ford—ready and eager. They are cocky, as only champions can be, and they still are completely confident that they will slice up a sixth World Series melon.

The victory for Antonelli was his 20th against three losses, making him the first National League 20-game winner this season.

St. Louis has nine more home dates to play to draw the 68,898 spectators needed to take them over the million mark. Last year, when St. Louis tied with Philadelphia for third place, there were 880,000 at the park.

Card rookie right-hander Gordon Jones matched Antonelli in a hurling duel until the league-leaders pushed across two final markers in the ninth inning.

However, St. Louis could only manage to solve Antonelli's south-paw slants for four singles. Their only run came in the last of the fourth on a single by Rip Repulski, an infield out and Ray Jablonski's base blow.

New York scored in their fourth on a double by Willie Mays, an infield out and an error by Jablonski. The tie was broken in the seventh on Davey Williams' single, an outfield error and Al Dark's single.

Moberly vs Mexico In Playoff Series For B-J Champion
MOBERLY (P)—The Moberly Miners and the Mexico Ramblers square off here tonight in the opening game of a best-of-five series for the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League baseball championship.

Moberly won the league's first 12 games. Mexico marched to the second half flag with a 9-3 record, finishing just half a game in front of Moberly.

The Ramblers divided two games with Moberly during the first half play, but swept both second half contests between the two teams.

The first and second games will be played here tonight and Wednesday night. The play then shifts to Mexico for games Friday and Saturday. A fifth contest, if necessary, will be played next week at a site to be selected by the flip of a coin.

Thunderstreak Tests New Chain Barrier At Fairfax Airport
KANSAS CITY, Kas. (P)—An Air Force Thunderstreak jet plane plunged into a cable-and-chain barrier that gradually pulled the speeding craft to a stop on a Fairfax airport runway yesterday.

It was the first test of the device at a civilian airport in this country.

A similar model was first used in Korea in 1952 and is credited with saving the lives of 30 pilots. Nylon and steel cables stretched across the runway were fastened to two sections of a massive chain weighing 32 tons. The chains were laid alongside the runway.

When the plane hit the cables it started dragging the chains, and as more and more of the heavy chains were pulled into action the plane slowed rapidly.

The Thunderstreak, going 70 miles an hour on a simulated take-off, dragged the barrier 781 feet and still had 419 feet remaining at the end of the runway.

The barrier protects planes that have power failure on takeoff or overshoot the runway on landing.

Taken Out—Milwaukee Shortstop Johnny Logan sticks a good football shoulder block into Chicago's Gene Baker, whose try for a double play was broken up by the block. (NEA)

No Pro Taint On Russians In Olympics

NEW YORK (P)—As far as Olympic chief Avery Brundage, one of the world's foremost proponents of pure amateurism, is concerned, there is no taint of professionalism among the Russian athletes who will participate in the Olympics.

Brundage collected his information first hand during a three-week trip through Russia.

He told a news conference yesterday that he had been assured by Russian sports chief Nicolai Romanov that the country's gigantic sports program abides by amateur rules.

"And I saw nothing on my trip to make me question this," he said. "Of course, there undoubtedly are some abuses in Russia as there are in all countries. Everywhere in the world I am reminded of American college football scholarships and asked if that is pure amateur sport."

He said he presented Romanov with clippings from American and Western European papers stating that Russian athletes are supported by the state.

"Romanov denied any professionalism," Brundage said. "He said Russian athletes must place their education and their jobs ahead of sports."

"The main thing about my trip is that I brought back a statement from the Olympic head in Russia that they believe in the Olympic rules and follow them. Now we have this on record and if we find any abuses, we can go to headquarters."

Brundage said that the Russians are not even committed to participate in the 1956 games at Melbourne. Diplomatic relations between Russia and Australia have been broken off because of a spy case. When Brundage asked Romanov specifically about 1956, the Russian merely said:

"It is a long way off and many things can happen in between."

Switcher's home run in the eighth was the victory margin for the Knights of Columbus in their 2 to 1 win over Adco Monday night in the first game of the Industrial Softball League playoffs for the city championship.

The two teams, champs of the American and National divisions of the league, meet at 8 p.m. tonight, again on the House of Park diamond, in the second of the playoff games.

There were several outstanding plays in Monday's contest that proved to be a real thriller. In the sixth, Hawley, KC second baseman, dove to his right to pick up Dittion's skidding grounder and threw underhanded behind him to Cooney for the out. Again in the sixth, Higgins jumped high and stretched out a long way to pick down Barry's high bouncing ball that would have gone for a sure hit. Dittion pulled a play in the seventh when he went to his right, pitched up a hard hit grounder and raced to the bag to beat Reinhardt, the batter, for the out.

Trophies were presented in pregame ceremonies in which Mayor Julian Bagby, Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors and John Vandekamp, president of the park board, participated. The Rev. A. J. Bruns, vicar of the park board, presided.

Frederick H. Bennett, president of the Sedalia Industrial Athletic Assn., made the presentation of trophies to Mr. Charles Weller of the Knights of Columbus as champs of the National League and winners of the sportsmanship award.

Mrs. Vince Seigel of the Adco Blues, champion of the American League, presented a trophy.

Tommy Sanders of the DeMolays, best sportsman trophy, presented a trophy to Mr. Public Service, batting champion of American League, Frank Lamb of Pittsburgh Corning, batting champion of National League.

REX LANE CARRIES BOUT TO WIN OFF WOODWORTH
WEST JORDAN, Utah (P)—Rex Lane, displaying unusual stamina, carried the fight to young Chuck Woodworth of Provo, Utah, for a full 10 rounds last night to win a unanimous decision.

Layne weighed 206 to 180 for the former Joplin, Mo., fighter. Woodworth, although considerably overweighted, made a fight of it all the way, with hit and run tactics.

There were no knockdowns and neither boxer landed any heavy blows, although Woodworth had several small cuts about the eyes and Layne bled profusely from a cut on top of his head, received when both fighters ducked at the same instant in the first few seconds of the fight.

Satterfield A Sensation Even In Loss
NEW YORK (P)—Win or lose, betting Bob Satterfield does it sensationally.

Action plus is the motto of the dynamite-fisted, china-chinned Chicago light heavyweight contender. Either he knocks the other guy out or he winds up on the deck himself.

So far this year, 30-year-old Bob has had five fights. He was flattened in two by Ezzard Charles in February. Since then he has racked up four straight victories via the kayo route. Frankie Daniels of Bakersfield, Calif., became No. 4 last night at 2-44 of the seventh round at St. Nicholas Arena.

Satterfield has had 54 pro fights. He has 29 KOs to his credit. He has been stopped 10 times. His overall record is 36-16-2.

Now ranked as the No. 6 contender among the 175-pounders, Bob said he'd like to meet champion Archie Moore or any of the five ahead of him — Harold Johnson, Joey Maxim, Paul Andrews, Floyd Patterson and Boardwalk Billy Smith. If not them, any of the heavyweights, especially Hurricane Tommy Jackson.

Daniels, wobbling and dazed, got up at nine but Referee Al Berl stopped it right there and ruled it a knockout.

"He was out on his feet," said Berl and rightly.

Maybe that was no fluke win. Chris Christensen scored over Billy Graham. The Danish welterweight champion looked impressive indeed last night in battering Johnny Lombardo of Mt. Carmel, Pa., for a 10-round decision at Eastern Parkway Arena.

Christensen did everything but floor the Pennsylvania veteran.

A's Pitcher Fined For Sunday's Melee
CHICAGO (P)—Will Harridge, president of the American League, has fined pitcher Marion Fricano of the Philadelphia Athletics $150 and warned him against "throwing at the batters."

Also drawing a fine—$100—was Steve Gromek, Detroit pitcher who tangled with Fricano after being hit in the kidney Sunday by one of Fricano's pitches.

Fricano is the hurler who also struck infielder Cass Michaels of the Chicago White Sox on the head with a pitch Friday night. Michaels, who suffered a fractured skull, is in a Philadelphia hospital.

Decide Today. If Bachelor Had Promise

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An official in the court-martial trial of Cpl. Claude Batchelor must decide today this controversial question: Did the Army promise immunity from prosecution to the corporal if he would return to the Allied side after deciding to stay with the Communists in Korea?

Batchelor's attorneys contend that such immunity was promised and have moved, therefore, that all charges against him be dropped. The Army has maintained it never promised immunity for actions of POWs while they were prisoners of the enemy in Korea.

Lt. Col. Donald L. Manes Jr., law officer or "judge" in the court-martial, must rule whether Batchelor should be freed. The trial opened at Ft. Sam Houston here yesterday.

Batchelor, captured by the Communists in Korea, was one of an original group of 23 Americans who decided not to come back. While in Indian custody at Pannumjion, Korea, last Jan. 1, he changed his mind and returned to the Allied side.

Lt. Col. Kerlin J. Bragdon, defense attorney, said the Army made a loud-speaker broadcast at Pannumjion Dec. 22 to persuade Batchelor and other unrepatriated Americans they would not be punished if they returned.

To this contention, Bragdon pegged his formal motion for dismissal of all charges.

Lt. Col. Francis R. Boyles, the trial counsel or prosecutor, argued that no immunity was promised. Batchelor's mother was in the small, crowded courtroom as the trial opened, 22, of Kermit, Tex., is charged with collaborating with the enemy and with informing on his fellow prisoners.

He has been a prisoner of the Army since he was arrested March 5, shortly after returning to the United States. Every officer of the eight-member court-martial panel is a decorated veteran of the war in Korea. President or "foreman" is Col. Charles W. Stratton, 51, now stationed with the Artillery School Command at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Joel Westbrook, defense lawyer, revealed to reporters yesterday he was waiting to see whether the Army will meet his request to bring Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va., to San Antonio as a witness. Dickenson was the only one of the original group of unrepatriated American soldiers, besides Batchelor, to decide to return to the Allied side. He was given a court-martial on charges similar to those against Batchelor. In May he was convicted and sentenced to 10 years at hard labor.

Westbrook said he felt Dickenson would be a hostile witness but wanted him to testify in order to bring out certain facts.

Say Strong Anti-Red Sentiment In Red Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Chinese who served in the Communist army in Korea say there is strong anti-Red sentiment in the Chinese Communist army. The Chinese, who were taken prisoner in Korea by U.N. forces, refused repatriation and elected to go to Formosa. They are on a U.S. tour under sponsorship of the Chinese Nationalist government on Formosa.

Speaking through interpreters, they told a news conference yesterday at the Pentagon that there would be large-scale defections in the Chinese Communist army should the Nationalists invade the Formosa.

Will Ask Guarantees On U. S. War Support

MANILA (AP) — Ironclad guarantees of immediate U.S. assistance in case of attack or invasion will be asked by the Philippines in its annual defense talks with the United States here Sept. 4, informed sources reported today. The Philippines is placing prime emphasis on its defense pact with the United States because of the slim chance such guarantees will be provided in the Southeast Asia collective security alliance to be forged by eight nations starting Sept. 6 in Manila.

File Many Words

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Western Union Telegraph Co. says news-men so far have filed a total of 1,149,000 words on the World Council of Churches Assembly. This file is second only to that of the 1952 presidential nomination conventions in Chicago.

Adlai Says GOP Failed In Promise

CHICAGO (AP) — Rapping the Eisenhower administration for its labor-management record, Adlai E. Stevenson said yesterday a Republican campaign promise to revise the Taft-Hartley Act was not kept.

For the Eisenhower administration, he said, this has been a year of "futility, or worse," in meeting problems of labor-management relationship. "Politics dropped to a new low in connection with the revising of the Taft-Hartley Act following the Republicans' great promises of a change, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee said.

Addressing some 3,500 delegates at the 25th convention of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Stevenson said: "The Republican candidate in that campaign (Eisenhower) said what he called 'union-busting provisions' should be removed. They haven't been. Consider the series of events in which the White House produced some reasonable proposals, then withdrew them under such obvious pressure that labor's sole Cabinet representative (Martin Durkin) resigned in protest."

Stevenson extended his criticism to include the National Labor Relations Board, saying that Eisenhower had appointed three men who are representative of management and that one, he said, has described himself as a "union-buster." Stevenson said they were interpreting the labor laws to destroy advantages which he said had been given to unions during previous Democratic administrations.

He said the rules restraining employer interference in union organizing campaigns and representation elections have been changed to permit the employer "to throw his full weight against an organizing movement."

Public Speaker Fades At Electricians' Meet

CHICAGO (AP) — There were more than 3,000 electricians in the International Amphitheater yesterday when the electric public address system conked out. Mayor Martin H. Kennelly was addressing the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers when suddenly his voice faded out. The mayor waited for 15 minutes while some electrical workers on duty, not convention delegates, made the necessary repairs.

Soviets Stage Festival For Indian Friends At Moscow Theater

MOSCOW (AP) — A big Soviet-Indian friendship festival was staged at Moscow's Bolshoi Theater last night. The occasion was the opening performance by a group of Indian dancers making a goodwill tour of the Soviet Union.

Deputy Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Lazar M. Kaganovich headed a large Soviet government delegation in the boxes, and most of the foreign diplomatic corps was on hand.

Famed Russian dancer Igor Moissevich said in a speech: "Our doors as well as our hearts are open wide to our Indian friends." The orchestra played the Indian and Soviet national anthems. The theater was decorated with both countries' flags.

Faces Perjury Charge Over License Appeal

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Joseph W. Dunn, 38, of Flint, didn't get his taxicab operator's license yesterday. Today he faces possible perjury charges. Dunn's application filed with Flint police stated he had never been arrested for a major crime. He admitted "one speeding ticket."

Police said a routine check with the FBI disclosed Dunn had been arrested 18 times on charges ranging from kidnapping to burglary. The title of the book, Emerson said, is "How to Play the Harmonica."

Guzman Friends Begin Exodus In Guatemala

GUATEMALA (AP) — Supporters of ex-President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman who have been granted safe conduct to leave Guatemala are starting their exodus to exile. Police said 17 others who "escaped" from foreign embassies where they hid out during last June's revolt against the pro-Communist government have given themselves up and been imprisoned in a jungle camp.

Seven followers of Arbenz left the Mexican Embassy for Mexico yesterday. Arbenz and several of his top left-wing supporters still are believed to be among the hundreds of refugees in the Mexican compound.

The military government headed by President Carlos Castillo Armas has said the ex-President and top leaders of his regime who are wanted on criminal charges would not be allowed to leave the country. In Buenos Aires, the Argentine government announced that five air force planes will fly to Guatemala Wednesday to pick up 120 refugees from the Argentine Embassy. They will be flown to the Argentine capital.

The remaining 72 refugees in the embassy will be taken to Argentina as conditions permit, an Argentine communique said. Under cross-examination, MacGhee admitted that he had written what he called slanderous statements about 20 Senior Air Force generals in order to save his life in a moment of panic.

No Job, He 'Gets' Pay

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A man walked into the Shively insurance agency and asked for a job. George Hill, a partner in the agency, told the man to wait. When Hill came back, the man—who had been standing by the cash register—was gone. So was $50. The loss wasn't covered by insurance.

Four Testify Of Fleming's Aid to Reds

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP) — Four American soldiers have testified Lt. Col. Harry Fleming, their fellow prisoner in a North Korean POW camp, made propaganda broadcasts and led discussion groups for the Communists.

Fleming's trial before an Army general court-martial on charges he collaborated with the Communists entered its second day today with four more ex-POWs due to testify against him.

One of the witnesses yesterday, Air Force Maj. David F. MacGhee of Falls Church, Va., told the military court Fleming once went to the Communist camp commander and reported, "MacGhee has double-crossed you."

Fleming, first American officer brought to trial on charges of aiding the Reds while a prisoner, sat impassively during the testimony. A slightly built man of 46 with close-cropped grey hair and four rows of ribbons on his dress uniform, he was a prisoner 34 months.

Fleming's wife Gloria, their daughter Patricia and son-in-law, Navy Petty Officer John Madden, sat in the courtroom. Fleming, who has denied the charges, faces a maximum penalty of life imprisonment, dismissal from the service and loss of pay if convicted.

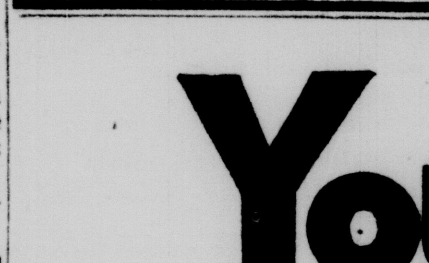

MacGhee said he once prepared a broadcast for the Reds' Peiping radio in which he had coded a message, using the first letter of each word, which said: "Five thousand men at Poyokong near Yalu River need medicine and clothing."

The Air Force officer said an American private tipped the Chinese Reds to the code and that Fleming then went to the Red commandant and told him that he, MacGhee had double-crossed the Communists. Soon after that, MacGhee said, he was transferred to a particularly brutal prison camp known as "The Caves."

Under cross-examination, MacGhee admitted that he had written what he called slanderous statements about 20 Senior Air Force generals in order to save his life in a moment of panic.

MacGhee said Fleming had urged other prisoners to sign propaganda leaflets urging United Nations forces to surrender. Sgt. Jose Mares of Albuquerque, N.M., testified Fleming once objected to signing a Communist propaganda broadcast until the was revised to take out some of its more objectionable statements.

Ike, Hoover Begin Trout Fishing Trip

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower and former President Hoover today keep "a very important date with a few finny comrades" on a trout fishing expedition high in the Rocky Mountains.

The President and Hoover, both of whom love to fish and are good at it, scheduled an early start on a 70-mile drive northwest to Fraser, Colo., on the western slope of the Continental Divide.

For the next three days they will live in rustic cabins close to 10,000 feet high in the snow-capped Rockies. They will fish swift-running St. Louis Creek and Eisenhower will do most of the cooking.

Eisenhower interrupted his Colorado vacation to fly to Washington and address the American Legion convention yesterday. On the return trip to Denver—with a stopover in Des Moines at the Iowa State Fair—the President was accompanied by the 80-year-old Hoover.

At the fair, Eisenhower concluded an informal foreign affairs speech by saying with a chuckle: "Now, my friends, Mr. Hoover and I have a very important date with a few finny comrades up in the high Rockies, and it is about time we were getting along."

Going along too on the trip to Fraser was the chief executive's youngest brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State University.

MacGhee said Fleming had urged other prisoners to sign propaganda leaflets urging United Nations forces to surrender. Sgt. Princess Margaret Gets Warning Call To Avoid Theater

EDINBURGH, Scotland, (AP) — An unidentified man telephoned an Edinburgh newspaper today to "warn" Princess Margaret to stay away from a Shakespearean performance here tonight.

Police said they are taking normal security measures but they generally believed the man was a hoaxer.

The Princess, vacationing in Scotland, will be an honor guest at the Edinburgh Festival premiere of the Old Vic production of "Midsummer Night's Dream," which will tour in the United States this fall and winter.

The man who called the newspaper warned that "the national-

Ike Claims French Action Is 'Setback'

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower last night called the French Parliament's scuttling of the European army project "a serious setback."

"We have our setbacks, we are disappointed. But we must not be discouraged," the President said emphatically in a speech at the Iowa State Fair in Des Moines.

Eisenhower learned of the French Assembly's rejection of the European Defense Community plan for a six-nation army as he and Secretary of State Dulles were in conference on another matter in Washington yesterday.

He and Dulles immediately agreed that the chief executive would discuss the development in a general way in his Des Moines address.

They also agreed that Dulles would issue a statement in Washington today setting forth in more detail official U.S. reaction to French shelving of EDC.

The President then flew from Washington to Des Moines, where state fair officials estimated a crowd of about 25,000 persons heard him speak off the cuff.

Eisenhower spoke of EDC as "a device whereby the free world could establish, without indulging in the traditional fights among themselves in Western Europe, security from any threat from within."

Then, with former President Hoover on the speaker's stand behind him, he said:

"This proposal was established to allow Germany — Western Germany — to enter into defensive alliances without any danger whatsoever that it would be in a position to start a war or, indeed, to engage in any kind of aggression."

"Because of these characteristics of this plan, the U.S., Great Britain and all the Western nations stood for it and approved this great French plan."

"Now, there is no disguising the fact that this is a serious setback. But what I want to say to you people is this: The free world is still overwhelmingly strong, as compared to the Iron Curtain countries, in the people we have, in their levels of intelligence and understanding, in their skills, in agriculture and in industry."

The crowd jammed in the grandstand and the area to either side of it listened quietly and intently when the President declared:

"We must never be discouraged."

And there was a round of applause when he said:

"America has never quit, in something that was good for herself and the world. We will not quit now. We shall never do so."

The President and Hoover got a standing ovation when they mounted the speaker's stand after spending about 15 minutes inspecting prize livestock.

In his speech, Eisenhower said the United States must have friends because "we know that the central core of the great world problem is the aggressive intent of international communism."

Hammering at the importance of collective security in the face of that situation, he said:

"If the free world does not hang together, then the unity of communism, achieved by force, by the use of the police outside your door and the spy inside your home, that unity will take one nation at a time, beginning with the most exposed, and subdue it."

Then, repeating what he told the American Legion convention in Washington earlier yesterday, he said such a course would lead eventually to isolation of America.

The crowd cheered when he added that must never occur—"We shall not let it occur." And he declared:

He also appealed for unity at home on American foreign policy.

THUNDER IN THE SKY—F84F Thunderstreak fighter-bombers will fly the traditional Bendix Trophy race from California to Dayton, Ohio, opening the National Aircraft Show. More Missouri Families Getting Phone Service on Old Party Line

ST. LOUIS (AP) — More of Missouri's rural families are getting telephone service, and the old party line is being modernized in some sections of the state.

The big Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., which has absorbed a number of smaller independent phone companies in Missouri during recent years, estimated six out of ten rural families in the parts of Missouri it serves now have telephone service.

Since the end of World War II, Southwestern Bell has spent an amount it estimated at 12½ million dollars in expanding and improving rural telephone service in Missouri.

During this period the number of telephones in rural areas of the state has increased by more than 39,000, the utility said.

The utility is spending about 1½ millions for major rural telephone projects to be completed this year, a spokesman said, bringing service to more than 4,000 rural families and businesses in its territory in the state.

An additional 1½ millions is earmarked for rural telephone improvement to be completed next year, with some of these projects starting this year, the spokesman added.

The number of rural party line subscriber hears in addition to his own has been limited—to a maximum of eight in most cases—in the modernized equipment being installed, the company said. In a few instances, 10-party rural lines have been put into service.

Some of the small telephone companies in Missouri have been unable to meet the demand of swiftly growing areas where there have been requests for increased and improved service.

For example, the area north of Kansas City where that city is planning a huge industrial airport is expected to tremendous telephone service demands in the next few years, far beyond the financial capabilities of a small independent company. The Farley Telephone Co. in that area is selling out to Southwestern Bell, which has promised to meet the service demands.

There are similar cases in many sections of Missouri.

The Missouri Public Service Co. recently gave Southwestern Bell the right to buy the small phone company at Rogersville, Mo., in southwestern Webster County, about 20 miles from Springfield.

The man and his wife who owned the company could not begin to finance the growing demand for service in an area receiving a lot of suburban Springfield expansion.

The man's wife had been ill, and the couple didn't think they could afford to hire another employee to take over her duties as switchboard operator.

Southwestern Bell gave the following breakdown on rural construction already completed this year, with the fire indicating the estimated gross cost of the projects and the number of new rural subscribers:

Bonne Terre, $72,000 and 150 new rural subscribers; Ste. Genevieve, $98,000 and 135; Poplar Bluff, $2,600 and 25; Lancaster, $148,000 and 330; Fulton, $45,000 and 140; Versailles, $74,000 and 135; two projects at Eldon, $43,000 and 70; Republic, $65,000 and 303; and Perryville, $76,000 and 260.

The utility said general improvement projects costing $140,000 and adding some 90 new subscribers have been completed at Farnfield, Lamar and Lynn.

Other rural construction projects of the utility already under way, with the estimated cost and the number of new telephones, which the company expects to complete before the year's end:

Poplar Bluff, $79,000 and 158 new subscribers; Fulton, $26,000 and 45; Versailles, $50,000 and 90; two projects at Joplin, $240,000 and 250; two projects at Farmington, $142,000 and 300; Puxico, $51,000 and 120; Antonia, $24,000 and 55; Pacific, $27,000 and 80.

Also scheduled for completion this year are general improvement projects at Carrollton and St. Clair costing a total of $250,000 and adding about 55 new subscribers.

Southwestern Bell said rural expansion and improvement projects tentatively scheduled for 1955 include a second project at Fulton and new projects at Sikeston, Fredericktown, Delta, St. Charles, Adrian, Gravois Mills and Sunrise Beach.

The combined cost of these 1955 projects, the company spokesman said, will be about $700,000 and facilities will be added for some 900 new subscribers.

In Daviess County, northwest of Chillicothe, the Green Hills Telephone Corp. this summer began installing phones in an area where there was no phone service for years.

The 1947 flood knocked down most of the rural lines in the section and the switchboard of the lock springs exchange was shut down about four years ago.

Until this summer, the isolated families had to drive varying distances to summon a doctor or to make other emergency calls.

Hal Boyle's Column—

He Makes Weekly Appearance On Replacement Radio Show

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "Where have you been keeping yourself?" my friends have been asking lately. "Haven't seen or heard from you in ages. You hiding from some body?"

This burns me up. Hiding? Not exactly. I've just been appearing weekly on a summer replacement radio show.

Maybe that is a form of hiding. They say that the two most anonymous jobs in the entertainment world are: (1) Acting as a stand-in target for a professional knife thrower while his wife is away having a baby, and (2) appearing on summer fill-in radio or TV show.

Well, anybody know a knife thrower about to become a father? I'm now, as we say in the trade, "at liberty." Some nasty old sponsor bought our time for another show, and off the air we went. How deeply this will cripple the National Broadcasting Co.'s network only time will tell. But so far NBC hasn't even developed a limp.

It wasn't a bad little show. It was one of those four-member news quiz panel programs.

You know how they select the panels? Well, they pick (1) a pretty, witty, charming girl, (2) a smart clever girl, (3) an anchor man who is good at wisecracks and (4) the "uh-uh" man.

The "uh-uh" man plays a vital role. He is the needed area of ignorance. If he ever gets a right answer, it is by accident. His duty is simple and stern. He must know so little that any member of the audience can turn to his wife and say, "listen to him, honey. I thought you always said I was the dumbest guy in the world."

I am not going into the reasons why I was picked for the panel. But at the end of the first show the engineer said admiringly, "Boyle, your last 'uh-uh' was worthy of a Barrymore."

The program got off to a good start. "Variety," the Bible of the entertainment field, gave it a fine pat on the back. All the letters the network received—including the 27 I wrote in longhand myself—were highly favorable.

In fact we thought we might last as long as "Uncle Tom's Cabin" until last week, when we were told:

"This is the last one, kids. Sorry. You're terrific, great, wonderful. But you're only sustaining, and a sponsor wants this time for another show. Maybe we can try again at a later date—maybe next summer."

Well, if it was to be the last performance, I decided it should be our best. I did my part. I managed to get in 43 "uh-uh's," a new record for a half-hour panel quiz show.

When we were off the air, I leaned back expectantly. What would happen now? Everybody knows the show-must-go-on tradition. What about the show-has-to-go-off tradition?

Frankly, I thought the door would open and Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, head of RCA, would enter followed by a battalion of NBC page boys carrying champagne and caviar sandwiches.

Then, wiping away his tears, Sarnoff would lift his foaming glass high and say brokenly: "To a great quiz panel! You have raised radio to new heights . . . brought fresh cheer to America in her hour of stress . . . written an immortal chapter in the history of the industry . . . and you shall be back, I promise you, if I have to go out and find a sponsor myself."

And I had my reply all ready: "Uh . . . uh . . . don't take it so hard, Dave. It's . . . uh . . . uh all in the breaks of the game. Won't you join us in singing 'Auld Lang Syne?'"

But the door didn't open. We panelists looked at each other and said tentatively, "Well . . . been nice. Be seeing you." The engineer said "so long."

That was all. So brief a parting.
